

JTM Products

#540 Leak Test Soap

Product Data Sheet

Description:

#540 Leak Test Soap is a highly concentrated liquid made from a blend of biodegradable soaps. It is prepared from easily biodegradable surfactants and contains an ammonia aroma. This product is also specially manufactured with antifreeze components.

Uses:

#540 Leak Test Soap is suitable for direct applications on pipes and valves. It may also be diluted for reduced cost. #540 Leak Test Soap is composed of mild surfactants which make it user friendly. This product may also be used for general cleaning.

Features:

- Liquid for easy application
- Contains no free caustic
- Biodegradable surfactants
- Mild based soap
- Contains no petroleum
- Contains no phosphates

Product Data:

- Form: Liquid
- Color: Amber
- Odor: Ammonia
- Boiling Point: \approx 212°F
- Bulk Density: Approximately 8.6 pounds per gallon
- Water Miscibility: Good
- Flash Point: >212°F